SUMMARY

Tech PR manager with five years of experience, including two years in-house at large technology companies. Specialises in product launches for AI, open-source, B2B SaaS and fintech products, tier-1 media relations, executive communications and owned media.

EXPERIENCE

Independent Communications Consultant, Avito Tech (contract), Remote | Sep 2026 - Present

- Produce customer case studies and product content for Trisigma, a B2B A/B testing platform.

PR Partner, Technology (PR Manager), Avito | Jun 2025 - May 2026

- Led PR for the B2B SaaS platform Trisigma and secured three CNews publications in four months, including two customer case studies based on interviews with the CPOs of Burger King Russia and Detsky Mir.
- Prepared and placed C-level commentary and bylined articles in tier-1 media, including Kommersant, RBC, Forbes, TASS and RIA Novosti, on topics from AI in hiring to BNPL and LLM inference, and secured conference speaking slots for executives.
- Managed the paid campaign for the company's first engineering management conference with 7 billboards, a coffee-shop partnership and 62 Telegram placements. Results were about 1,000 on-site guests, 10,000 online viewers, 30 journalists and 1,627 registrations at about RUB 1,100 each.
- Grew the AvitoTech engineering Telegram channel from approximately 10K to 15K subscribers and increased average post reach by about 30% during my tenure.
- Managed eight Telegram influencer campaigns with 104 placements, 4.4M views, RUB 2.2 per view and a total budget of about $120K.
- Delivered two announcements in the first three months, the EXPF Sigma acquisition with coverage in Kommersant and Habr and the first interest-free instalments on Russia's C2C market with coverage in Forbes and Inc. Russia.

PR Manager, AI and Technology Products, Yandex | Nov 2024 - May 2025

- Led PR for the open-source release of the Perforator profiler, which ranked first among new GitHub repositories on launch day, received 2,038 stars in five days, reached 67K readers on Habr and was covered in four countries.
- Led the developer community track of the YandexGPT 5 launch and delivered about 70% of an 11-item post-launch plan, including a podcast episode with 114K YouTube views that I organised and co-directed. Edited the Habr launch article with 130K readers.
- Co-developed the company's reactive messaging on open models after the DeepSeek release in January 2025.
- Managed the launch of the DivKit open-source UI framework update.
